February 14th - Saint Valentine's Day

There are varying opinions as to the origin of Valentine's Day. Some experts state that it originated from St. Valentine, a roman who was martyred for refusing to give up Christianity. He died on February 14, 269 A.D., the same day that had been devoted to love lotteries. Legend also says that St. Valentine left a farewell note for the jailer's daughter, who had become his friend, and signed it "From Your Valentine". Other aspects of the story say that Saint Valentine served as a priest at the temple during the reign of Emperor Claudius. Claudius then had Valentine jailed for defying him. In 496 A.D. Pope Gelasius set aside February 14 to honour St. Valentine.

Gradually, February 14 became the date for exchanging love messages and St. Valentine became the patron saint of lovers. The date was marked by sending poems and simple gifts such as flowers. There was often a social gathering or a ball.

In the United States, Miss Esther Howland is given credit for sending the first valentine cards. Commercial valentines were introduced in the 1800's and now the date is very commercialised. The town of Loveland, Colorado, does a large post office business around February 14. The spirit of good continues as valentines are sent out with sentimental verses and children exchange valentine cards at school.

Relationship Readings

Our readers are PROFESSIONAL clairvoyants specialising in relationship readings.

What can you expect of them? They will be honest and tell you the truth as they see it. They will not wrap up your reading with fancy words and give you false hopes where there is no hope. It would be very easy for a reader to tell a caller that a lover will come back or that he still loves them - even if they have perceived that the relationship is over and there is no hope of a reconciliation. Not only is that not honest, it is giving the caller false hope.

So what constitutes a good relationship reading? A reader who will give a caller false hope where no hope exists or a reader who is honest and professional?

Testimonials...

"I didn't believe you at the time, but it was honest and the most accurate I have ever received." - a recent testimonial.

Circle of Professional Clairvoyants

In this article, one of our Senior Readers explains that we all have free will, and can change destiny.....

As a Clairsentient Reader, who uses both Tarot and Astrology as tools, and teaches it to others, I am asked at least once a fortnight about the role of Freewill and how it affects what is fated to occur in someone's life.

Firstly, I hear you question , is anything fated to occur?

Let me explain that I work from the premise that when a child is conceived a process begins. This process culminates in the birth of possibilities. However, to a great degree it is true that the circumstances and opportunities to manifest in this child's life are already set, and they will appear at their appointed time and place, according to astronomical configurations which will then set certain circumstances in motion.

This does not predict the outcome of the situations. This is where the education, knowledge, desires, emotions and FREE WILL to choose particular courses of action come in.

People wonder if anything can be done to change these 'destined' events. The answer is - OF COURSE WE CAN!

When we lose a close relative, we can either allow the experience in some way to disable us, sometimes for years, creating fears and anxieties, which inevitably leaves us crushed and unable to move forward. Or, we can use the experience in a positive way, a way that helps us grow as an independent! This is our FREE WILL! To choose the way in which we react to what life throws at us!

Astrology, I believe, can indicate when and where these events take place, Tarot can be used to guide us, at these times, guiding our choices and our FREE WILL.

I am of the belief that these two forms of guidance are inextricably tied together.....

Maybe every set-back we experience should be considered an opportunity?
